

Oak Harbor Public Schools

5th Grade

READING

Harcourt Storytown

What will be taught:

- comprehension strategies for fiction & non-fiction
- text features & structures
- close reading
- note-taking
- comparing & contrasting texts
- vocabulary

What to expect:

- daily reading logs
- independent and partner work
- class discussions
- focus on fluency & accuracy

WRITING

David Matteson
Approach

What will be taught:

- narrative writing
- informational writing
- research projects
- opinion writing
- punctuation usage (. ! ?)

What to expect:

- pre-writing
- drafting
- editing
- revising
- publishing
- teacher guidance & support

MATHEMATICS

Houghton Mifflin
Math Expressions

What will be taught:

- problem solving
- write & interpret expressions
- place value
- perform operations with decimals to the hundredths
- +, -, x and / fractions
- convert measurements
- graph on coordinate plane

What to expect:

- worksheets to complete at home
- parents continued support of math fact fluency
- all basic math facts (+, -, x, and /) should be memorized by 3rd grade
- up to 9 digit addition & subtraction
- whole group instruction

*Click on the pictures to access curriculum websites.

SCIENCE

Building Blocks
of Science

What will be taught:

- structures and properties of matter
- matter and energy in ecosystems
- earth and space systems

What to expect:

- creations
- dissections
- researching and reporting
- engineering

SOCIAL STUDIES

TCL: America's Past

What will be taught:

- narrative writing
- informational writing
- research projects
- opinion writing
- punctuation usage (. ! ?)

What to expect:

- pre-writing
- drafting
- editing
- revising
- publishing
- teacher guidance & support

HANDWRITING

Handwriting Without Tears

What will be taught:

- pencil grip and skills
- proper formation of cursive uppercase and lowercase letters

What to expect:

- transition from print to cursive
- develop hand-eye coordination